- b) where property is damaged the repair of the damage and the restoration of the damaged portion of the property to a condition substantially the same as but not better nor more extensive than its condition when new

Repairs and Alterations Clause

Joiners and other tradesmen/workmen may be employed to effect repairs or minor structural alterations not exceeding the agreed amount per contract to the insured buildings without prejudice to this insurance. In the event of any repairs or minor structural alterations exceeding the aforementioned amount prior notice thereof must be given to the insurers who reserve the right to charge an additional premium in respect of such repairs and alterations

Sanctions Clause

Notwithstanding any other terms under this agreement, no insurer shall be deemed to provide coverage or will make any payments or provide any service or benefit to any insured or other party to the extent that such cover, payment, service, benefit and/or any business or activity of the insured would violate any applicable trade or economic sanctions law or regulation

Special Provisions

- 1) The work of reinstatement (which may be carried out upon another site and in any manner suitable to the requirements of the Insured subject to the liability of the Insurers not being thereby increased) must be commenced and carried out with reasonable despatch otherwise no payment beyond the amount which would have been payable under the Policy if this Clause had not been incorporated therein shall be made
- 2) When any Property insured under this Clause is damaged or destroyed in part only the liability of the Insurers shall not exceed the sum representing the cost which the Insurers could have been called upon to pay for reinstatement if such property had been wholly destroyed
- 3) No payment beyond the amount which would have been payable under the Policy if this Clause had not been incorporated therein shall be made until the cost of reinstatement shall have been actually incurred
- 4) Each item insured under this Clause is declared to be separately subject to the following Condition of Average namely
If at the time of reinstatement the sum representing the cost which would have been incurred in reinstatement if the whole of the property covered by such Item had been destroyed exceeds the Sum Insured thereon at the breaking out of any fire or at the commencement of any destruction of or damage to such property by any other peril hereby insured against then the Insured shall be considered as being his own insurer for the excess and shall bear a rateable proportion of the loss accordingly
- 5) No payment beyond the amount which would have been payable under the Policy if this Clause had not been incorporated therein shall be made if at the time of any destruction or damage to any Property Insured hereunder such property shall be covered by any other insurance effected by or on behalf of the Insured which is not upon the identical basis of reinstatement set forth herein
- 6) Where by reason of any of the above Special Provisions no payment is to be made beyond the amount which would have been payable under the Policy if this Clause had not been incorporated therein the rights and liabilities of the Insurers and the Insured in respect of the destruction or damage shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Policy including any Condition of Average therein as if this Clause had not been incorporated therein

Stock Declaration Clause

In consideration of the premium by the Stock Item(s) of this Policy being provisionally calculated on 75% of the Sum Insured thereby the Insured shall declare the value of such property in writing to the Insurers within thirty days of the last working day of each month thereafter and if a declaration be not so given the Insured shall be deemed to have declared the maximum Sum Insured as the value. If the property described in (the said Item(s) of) this Policy is also insured under any other policy the value declared shall be that proportion of the total value of the property which the Sum Insured on such property under this Policy bears to the total of the Sums Insured under all policies on such property. The value declared shall be the average of the values at risk on each day of the period between each declaration.

On the expiry of each Period of Insurance the actual premium (for the said Item(s)) shall be calculated at the rate (indicated in the appropriate place in the Schedule or as arranged) per annum on the average amount declared i.e. the total of the sums declared divided by the number of declarations. If the actual premium be greater than the provisional premium paid the Insured shall pay the difference if it be less the difference shall be repaid to the Insured but such repayment shall not exceed 50% of the provisional premium.

In consideration of the Insurance not being reduced by the amount of any loss the Insured shall pay the appropriate extra premium of the amount of the loss from the date thereof to the date of the expiry of the Period of Insurance.

It is warranted that every insurance on the Property be identical in wording with this Insurance.
